Event Descriptions

Advanced Couponing (1/31)

Learn how to spend just $5 for over $40 worth of product at Walgreens. What is "Food Insurance," and how do you make the most of it? We'll show you how to use on-line resources and mail-in rebates to increase your savings. Learn time saving tricks from an advanced coupon user. (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

Art Flicks (1/30)

This month's film, "Bad Day to Go Fishing," explores the life of a washed-up strong man who stages wrestling matches in South America. The film is in Spanish with English subtitles and contains adult themes and content. We provide beverages and popcorn! (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

Book-Snack-Pack (1/4)

This month Flat Stanley goes to China! Munch on a healthy snack, get a sneak peek at some great new books, learn some techniques that will hone your library skills, and write your own book review for display at the library. Want TONS of fun? Join us for Book-Snack-Pack and be a part of our Pack! (Grades K-2, Storytime Room)

Chess Club (1/3, 1/10, 1/17, 1/24 & 1/31)

A drop-in chess event for all levels from beginner to expert. Join us for weekly lessons with chess teacher Jared Poch. (Grades 3-6, 2nd floor)

Classic Conversations (1/27)

Get an insider's view from Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra music director and conductor, William Intriligator. He will share details about the January 28th concert, "A World of Dance." Bring your lunch and arrive early for a good seat! (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

Computer Training * (Wednesdays & Saturdays)

Library staff will provide introductory training in a variety of classes. We invite you to these 90-minute hands-on basic sessions. (Adults, Computer Classroom)

Computer Training: Get Help! * (1/14 & 1/18)

Do you have a specific question about your computer or its software? Let us help! Register for a 15-minute spot, and our team of talent will help you as much as possible. (Adults, Computer Classroom)

Cookbook Club (1/26)

Join us this month for our bread extravaganza! Bring your favorite bread or sweet bread recipe to share with the group as well as cooked samples to nibble on. Please bring at least 10 copies of your recipe. (Adults, Sunflower Room)

Couponing 101 (1/24)

It was so popular the first time that we're repeating this workshop! Want a crash course in couponing? Wondering if it's worth the time? Learn how to save 30%, 50%, even 80% or more on your grocery bill and keep your pantry stocked for a fraction of full price. (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

FAFSA Assistance (1/17 & 1/29)

Students and parents will receive one-on-one assistance on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with UW Educational Opportunity Center Coordinator, Ginny Ruckman. This session is hands-on and we suggest that attendees bring their most recent tax return. (Ages 16-25 & parents, Computer Classroom)

FAFSA Information Session (1/10)

Teens, young adults and parents can attend this session to learn more about the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This program is in partnership with UW Education Opportunity Center. (Ages 16-25 & parents, Cottonwood Room)

Family Fun Night - Celebrate China (1/12)

Chinese New Year is a very important holiday in China. In 2012, Chinese New Year is actually January 23, so we'll be celebrating early. It starts on the new moon and ends with the lantern festival on the full moon 15 days later. This is the Year of the Dragon! We'll make a craft and eat a snack. (Children & Families, Storytime Room)

Fill-A-Bag Sale (1/20-1/22)

Now's your chance to get some great deals on used books, CDs, DVDs, and audio books. Fill a plastic bag for just $5. Fri-Sat, 10:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.; Sun, 1:00-4:30 p.m. (Book Sale Room)

Free Date Night - Comedy * (1/12)

Free Date Night is back, this time featuring stand-up comedians Doug Baird and Captain Jin, accompanied by a selection of delectable desserts. Space is limited to 20 couples! To sign up, call 634.3561 or visit the library's 1st floor "Ask Here" desk. (Adult couples, Sunflower Room)

Get Ready for the Science Fair! (1/8)

Join educator Tom Farrell in this entertaining and informative session on how to start, make, and present amazing science fair projects. A great opportunity for students! (Grades 4-6 and parents, Storytime Room)

Ice Cream Sunday (1/22)

Snuggle up with your favorite "blanky" and listen to some "sleepy time" stories. Join us for some yummy ice cream and make a fun craft. (Children and families, Storytime Room)

LEGO® Challenge (1/13)

Can you complete the LEGO challenge? "China" is the theme this month and participants will have one hour to build something that reminds them of China. You can use library books that will be available as reference books. At the end of the challenge, an option is to display your project on the second floor. (Grades 3-6, Storytime Room)

Let It Snow! (1/20)

The weather outside is frightful, but the library is so delightful. Come on in for some snowy day fun. We'll read "Snowmen at Night," make marshmallow snowmen, play a snowman game, and have a "snowball" fight! (Grades PreK-2; Storytime Room)

Let's Go LEGO® (1/7)

Be creative with LEGOs we provide! Work alone, in teams, with a sibling, or with your parents or caregiver. Participants will be given the theme of "China" and one hour to build their best LEGO project, using library books as reference materials. (Grades K-2 & Caregivers, Storytime Room)

Music Together® (1/14)

Join music teacher Briana Cramer in exploring music and movement! Advance sign-up is required. To sign up, call 634.3561, or visit the 2nd floor "Ask Here" desk. (Birth-5 years, Storytime Room)

Noon Music: Sonoma Trio (1/9)

The Sonoma Trio is a classical chamber music trio with flute, cello, and piano playing a mix of styles from Claude Bolling and his Suite for Jazz Piano and Flute to Clara Schumann's romantic trio for flute, cello, and piano. Bring your lunch and eat while you listen. (Adults & Families, Cottonwood Room)

Noon Music: Banjaxed (1/23)

Banjaxed is a rock and roll band that has been together in Cheyenne for the last 14 years, playing classic 1960's rock and roll. (Adults & Families, Cottonwood Room)

Parenting Workshop Series (1/5 & 1/19)

Attention Parents, Grandparents, Guardians Young and Old! Attend these two workshops and learn about the child care finder program and how it can help educate parents on the importance of finding and identifying quality child care. Topics for discussion include environment and safety, learning activities, communication skills, nutrition, guidance and discipline. Presented by Jill Christoffersen. (Adults, Sunflower Room)

Skill Builders * (1/9)

Just for homeschooled children. Develop and maintain your reading and writing and library skills while learning about China this month. To sign up, call 634.3561 or visit the library's 2nd floor "Ask Here" desk. (Ages 5-8, Storytime Room)

Teen Chess Tourney (1/18)

How good are you at chess, really? Can you beat other teens in town? Join us for this chess competition where the best chess player wins. If you hold out to the end, you'll get a new wooden chess set. (Grades 7-12, Teen Lounge)

Tuesday Night Book Club (1/17)

Join us for a lively discussion of "Anne of Green Gables," by L.M. Montgomery. Buy a drink in The Library Café to bring with you! You're responsible for finding the book and reading it on your own before the discussion date. (Adults, Windflower Room)

Weekly Wind Down (1/5, 1/12, 1/19 & 1/26)

Wind down the week as you join us for this open session of video games. Eat a healthy snack and play games on the Xbox 360, Kinect, or the Wii. Come and go as you please - bring your old friends and hang out, or meet new friends. (Grades 7-12, Sage Room)

 Sign up early! Space is limited. Call 634-3561 or visit the library.

Storytimes at the Library

All sessions take place in the Storytime Room on the 2nd Floor and parents or caregivers must attend, unless otherwise noted.
